Explainer: Why IT fresher salaries are so low

Salaries of freshers at Indian IT firms have been stagnant for two decades, in stark contrast to skyrocketing CXO salaries. Recently, Wipro asked candidates it had previously offered Rs 6.5 lakh per annum (LPA) if they would be willing to join immediately, at Rs 3.5 LPA. Why are the salaries so low? Ayushman Baruah explains. Quality issues with the engineering graduates? Multiple studies have shown that the bulk of the fresh engineering graduates are not immediately employable, which raises questions on their quality and the salaries they can command. According to a report by Aspiring Minds, only 2.5% of the engineering graduates possess tech skills in emerging technologies like artificial intelligence (AI), which are necessary for the digital era.

HDFC, PNB hike lending rates

Housing finance major HDFC and state-run Punjab National Bank (PNB) on Tuesday announced up to 25-bps increase in their lending rates, making their new and old loans expensive for consumers. The revised rates would be effective from March 1. HDFC has increased its retail prime lending rate by 25 basis points to a minimum of 9.20%. PNB increased its marginal cost of funds-based lending rate (MCLR) by 10 basis points across all tenures. The benchmark one-year MCLR, used to price most of consumer loans such as auto, personal and home, has been revised upwards to 8.5% from 8.4%, the lender said in an exchange filing.

Reliance General Insurance CoC rejects capital infusion demand

The committee of creditors (CoC) of Reliance General Insurance Company (RGICL), a subsidiary of debt-laden Reliance Capital (RCap), has rejected the demand for capital infusion of around ₹600 crore from the parent company to improve the solvency level. The development comes at a time when RGICL said it continues to lose business to rivals, impacted by "borderline" insolvency. The CoC has rejected the proposal for fresh capital infusion, stating the firm is part of the bankruptcy proceedings and it would not be prudent to provide fresh funds. The decision came after a lenders' meeting on Monday and Tuesday, sources close to the development said.
