DESCRIPTION

Atharva Institute of Management Studies organized a Mock Interview Session in collaboration with AmQuest Education to enhance students' placement readiness and interview performance.

The session was conducted on AIMS Campus, where professional trainers from AmQuest Education conducted one-on-one mock interviews with students. They evaluated participants on communication skills, confidence, subject knowledge, attitude, and industry awareness.

Students also received personalized feedback from AmQuest experts, which helped them understand the areas they need to improve before appearing for actual campus placement interviews.

The activity successfully created a real-life interview environment and provided students with valuable learning experience.

Objectives:

- To provide students first-hand experience of a professional interview setup.
- To improve communication, confidence, and clarity of expression.
- To make students aware of industry expectations and interview standards.
- To enhance resume presentation and self-introduction skills.
- To identify strengths and gaps in students' interview readiness.

- To prepare students for upcoming campus placements.

Key Takeaways:

- Students understood how to structure responses during HR and technical interviews.
- Improved non-verbal communication such as posture, eye contact, and body language.
- Gained confidence to face real recruiters.
- Received personalized feedback and action points from AmQuest interviewers.
- Learned the importance of resume clarity, grooming, and professionalism.

Learning Outcomes:

- Enhanced interview skills and corporate readiness.
- Ability to answer situational, behavioral, and competency-based questions effectively.
- Increased awareness of placement expectations and career planning.
- Improved communication and presentation skills.
- Greater confidence and preparedness for HR rounds and Personal interview.
