DESCRIPTION

Groups ThriftFlip and Next Gen Innovators showcased their projects with strong research, creativity, and strategic thinking.

The presentations reflected:

Clear understanding of market needs

Practical application of business and marketing concepts

Strong teamwork and communication skills

Innovative and solution-oriented approaches

Industry Exposure & Skill Development

To further enhance industry readiness, students attended an online webinar titled “Campus to Corporate”, which focused on:

Understanding corporate culture

Workplace expectations and professionalism

Skills required for a smooth transition from academics to industry

Additionally, students participated in a specialized session on “Essentials of Commercial Contracts for Budding Entrepreneurs” conducted by CA CS Jagdish Ahuja. This session provided valuable insights into:

Basics of commercial agreements

Legal awareness for startups and entrepreneurs

Importance of contracts in business decision-making

Participating Students

Sanket Khobragade

Priya Punjani

Aryan Manuja

Vighnesh Ghavali

THRIFTFLIP -The ThriftFlip group presented a creative and sustainable fashion concept.

They showcased two sample products demonstrating strong design thinking.

The idea showed good potential at a prototype level.

However, the group needs to work on scalability and expansion planning.

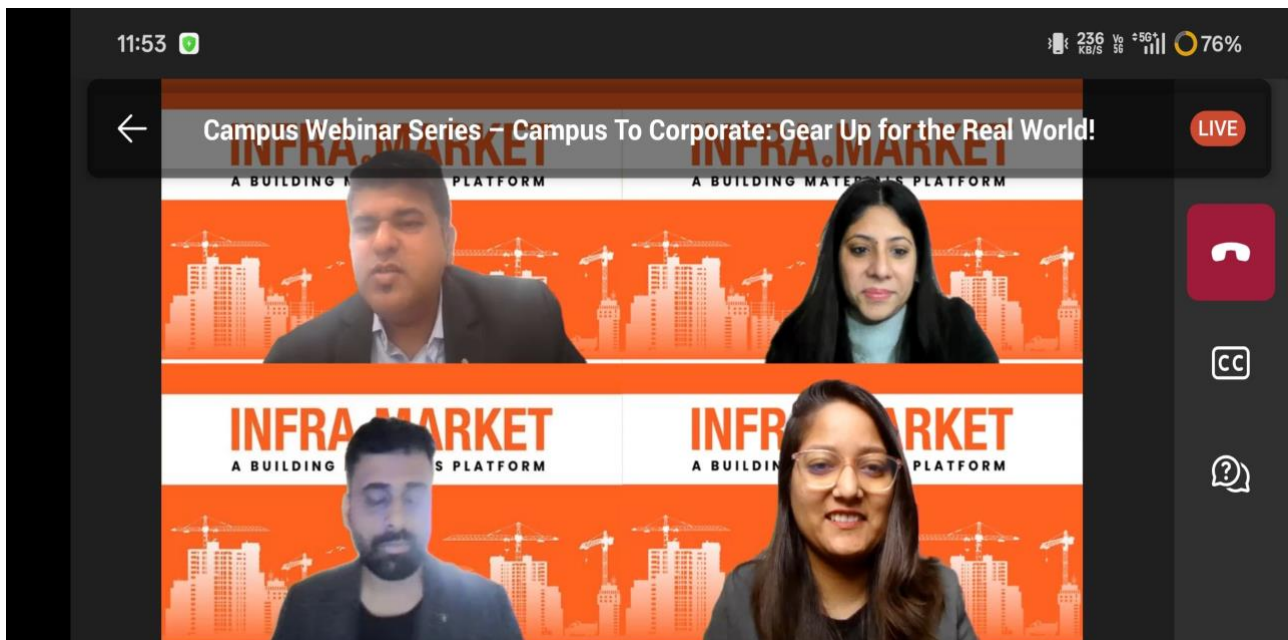

Next Gen innovators – The Next Gen Innovators group is working on developing a prototype for a vegan leather shoe.

Their idea focuses on sustainability, innovation, and ethical product design.

The team demonstrated a clear understanding of material selection and market relevance.

Further refinement of the prototype will strengthen the overall concept
