Report on 31st Project Friday – An Inspiring Interactive Session with Sagar Chudesara

On 28th February 2026, Atharva University organized its 31st Project Friday session with the renowned author Sagar Chudesara to encourage students to develop the habit of reading and to understand the importance of storytelling and writing. The session was conducted in an interactive manner where students got the opportunity to learn about the author's journey, his experiences, and his perspective on reading and writing.

The event began with a warm welcome to the guest speaker. Our respected Director, Dr. Reena Pojara Ma'am, felicitated Mr. Sagar Chudesara as a token of appreciation for his presence and valuable interaction with the students. The felicitation was followed by an engaging talk by the author.

During the session, Mr. Chudesara shared his personal journey and spoke about how he gradually developed the habit of reading books. He mentioned that his reading journey began with the popular Harry Potter series, which sparked his interest in literature. Initially, reading started as a casual activity, but over time it developed into a consistent habit and eventually inspired him to explore writing as well.

He encouraged students to start building the habit of reading by choosing simple and engaging books. As recommendations for beginners, he suggested reading Think and Grow Rich by Napoleon Hill and The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho.

According to him, these books help individuals develop a positive mindset, understand the value of perseverance, and inspire them to achieve their goals.

Mr. Chudesara also spoke about the art of storytelling. He explained how powerful storytelling can capture human emotions and make readers deeply connect with the narrative. His writing focuses on themes such as love, resilience, and the emotional bonds that shape human relationships. His ability to narrate stories in a relatable and heartfelt way makes his work appealing to readers.

During the session, he also introduced his book We Are There for Each Other and provided an overview of its theme and message. The book highlights the importance of emotional connections, friendship, and support systems in life. It has received a positive response from readers and has also become a bestseller on Amazon.

The session was highly interactive and engaging for the students. Mr. Chudesara also motivated students by explaining that writing a book is possible for anyone who develops the habit of reading, observes life experiences carefully, and expresses their thoughts and emotions honestly through words.

Overall, the session was extremely interesting, informative, and motivating. It inspired students to cultivate a regular reading habit and encouraged them to explore their creativity through writing. The interaction with the author provided valuable insights into the world of literature and storytelling, making the session a fruitful learning experience for all the students.
